

SCV
WATER

Update on Urban Water Management Plan

Water Resources and Watershed Committee

February 10, 2021

Item 3.1

Sarah Fleury

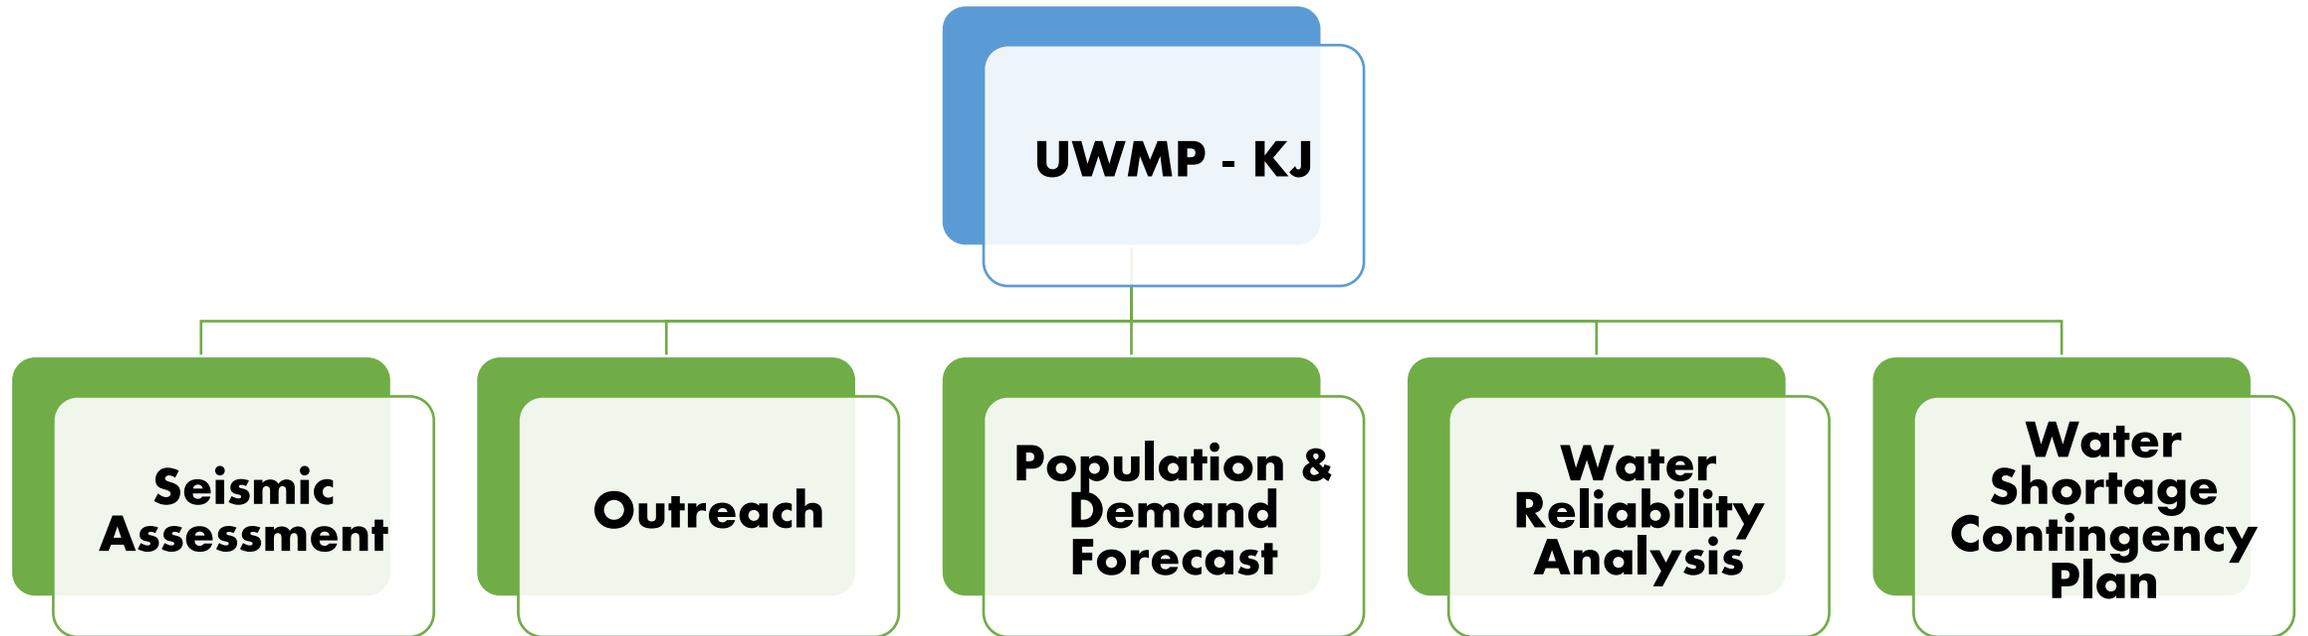

UWMP | Role of Public Involvement

TIMELINE & MILESTONES:

Updates

Kennedy Jenks - UWMP

Seismic Risk Assessment

- Draft Report by end of February
 - Desktop analysis
 - Include recommendations for KJ field investigations
 - Analysis on tank anchoring requirements

UWMP Overall

- Updates in progress
- Presenting SBx7-7 in Feb.

Public Outreach

- Planning 2nd Workshop
 - Finalizing the logistics plan
 - Compiling presentations
 - Started event outreach
- UWMP 2nd Workshop Feb 17, 2021
 - Population and Demand Study, SBx7-7, Drought Risk Assessment

Join us for a Virtual Public Workshop to discuss our

URBAN WATER MANAGEMENT PLAN

Wednesday, February 17, 2021
6:30– 8:00 p.m.

Population and Demand Forecast

- Finalizing data
- Demand difference
 - Demands trending lower than 2015 UWMP
 - Drought induced efficiency gains
 - Change in development (medium to higher density single family units)
- Tech Memo Report
- 2nd Workshop Presentation Topic

Reliability Analysis

- Updating model
 - Future supply sources
 - 2021 Storage Capacities
- Next Step
 - Input Population and Demand data
 - Start Model Runs

SCV
WATER

Questions?

