SCV WATER ANNOUNCES EXCITING LINEUP OF 2025 GARDENING CLASSES WITH A TRENDY TWIST

SCV Water is thrilled to announce its 2025 gardening class schedule, featuring a series of innovative workshops designed to inspire, educate, and empower the community to create beautiful, sustainable landscapes. This year's lineup blends eco-conscious practices with the latest trends in gardening, ensuring a hands-on, engaging experience for all skill levels. This series of workshops, led by expert instructors, will cover various topics from sustainable landscape design to water-wise lawn care.

2025 Landscape and Gardening Workshops Schedule:

All workshops are on Saturdays from 9 – 11 a.m. Most workshops are in person, with the exception of the first class on January 25. Workshops are subject to change, so check online to confirm details. Space is limited.

- January 25 - Winter Garden Prep: Pruning Tips & Techniques (Zoom Webinar)
- February 22 - Part 1: Introduction to Landscape Design
- March 15 - Part 2: Design Review Workshop
- April 12 - DIY Drip Systems: An Efficient and Affordable Irrigation Solution
- May 17 - Gardening 101: A Beginner's Guide to Container Gardening for CA Natives
- June 28 – Landscaping Your SCV Oasis: A Guide to Ideal Plant Selection
- September 13 – Lawn Removal Techniques and California Lawn Alternatives
- October 11 – Native Plant Power: Planting for a Thriving Ecosystem

Plus, a fun NEW workshop for kids is scheduled for Wednesday, July 9. The Kids' Flower Pressing Workshop at the Sustainable Demonstration Garden at Bridgeport Park will take place from 9 – 11 a.m.

Key Highlights of the Landscape Workshops:

These workshops offer dynamic learning experiences with expert instructors who bring extensive horticultural knowledge and hands-on expertise. Attendees will engage in interactive sessions covering topics such as landscape design, native plant selection, and maximizing outdoor water use. Beyond learning, the workshops foster community connections by providing opportunities for gardening enthusiasts to share experiences and build a supportive network beyond the classroom.

Classes will be held at 9 a.m. at either SCV Water's Pine Street location (23780 Pine Street) or at Bridgeport Park (23521 Bridgeport Lane) on Saturdays. Space is limited.
